long past the time when philosophers from different perspectives had joined the funeral procession that declared the death of god a renewed interest has arisen in regard to the questions of god and religion in philosophy this book brings some of these philosophical views together to present an overview of the philosophical scene in its dealings with religion but also to move beyond the outsider s perspective reflecting on these philosophical interpretations from a fundamental theological perspective the authors discover in what way these interpretations can challenge an understanding of today s faith mystical theology and feminist philosophy to unfold a theopoetic interpretation of the narrative of the annunciation in the gospel of luke it begins with a discussion of the foundational phenomenologies of edmund husserl and martin heidegger and then moves to the more recent work of several french phenomenologists including paul ricoeur jean louis chretien and michel henry the interpretation is then expanded through the philosophies of luce irigaray jean luc marion and jacques derrida finally the phenomenologies of maurice merleau ponty and martin heidegger provide a means to interpret the annunciation through theopoetics as a text that is infused with possibility mary filled with grace is beckoned by the divine into possibility responding in grace she in turn beckons the divine into possibility transgressing the limits of language this possibility slips into apophasis into a moment of gelassenheit a mutual letting be or releasement of mary and the divine into a mystical union of love a love that becomes manifest through a gift of life
